

Joyce Echaquan SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship, financed partially by the Fonds de recherche du Québec, shall be awarded on a competitive basis to an Indigenous woman who wants to pursue graduate studies (master's degree) and whose activities focus on one of the call for action and engagement in Joyce's Principle<sup>1</sup> as presented in November 2020 by the Atikamekw Council of Manawan and the Atikamekw Nation Council. This initiative is supported by Joyce's family.

Total amount of the scholarship: $36 000

Duration: 2 years ($18 000$/year)

Eligibility: Be registered as a graduate student at UQAT or INRS for the Fall 2024 term.

Instructions for submission of application:

- Submit a letter of intent and CV;
- Provide a summary of the research project (5 pages max.), including presentation of the conceptual and methodological framework, a workplan, and a schedule;
- Include two letters of recommendation;
- Include transcripts of completed university studies.

Evaluation criteria:

- Relevance of the project;
- Quality of academic record;
- Clarity and feasibility of the workplan;
- Compliance with ethical guidelines in place;
- Anticipated impacts for Indigenous Peoples.

Due date and submission of file:

The completed file must be submitted to reseadialog@inrs.ca no later than June 30, 2024. An evaluation committee of three people, including an Indigenous elder, will evaluate applications.

<sup>1</sup> To consult Joyce's Principle : https://principedejoyce.com/sn\_uploads/principe/Joyce\_s\_Principe\_brief\_Eng.pdf

For more information:

Suzy Basile, Professor
suzy.basile@uqat.ca

Carole Lévesque, Professor
carole.levesque@inrs.ca

Ioana Radu, Professor
ioana.radu@uqat.ca